ORDER UPON APPLICATION OF THE
FIRST PENNSYLVANIA BANKING AND TRUST COMPANY

This matter came on to be heard pursuant to notice by mail to the interested parties upon the petition of the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Company to reclaim a Shavelly masonite poultry house and all parts, machines and fittings thereof and the answer of William R. Leckenby, Jr., Trustee, thereto. James M. Vaughan, attorney for the petitioner and William R. Leckenby, Jr., Trustee, appeared. Testimony was taken, counsel were heard and the matter was taken under advisement and counsel were directed to file legal memoranda.

While the matter was thus under advisement Richard E. Zimmerman, attorney for Loyola Federal Savings & Loan Association communicated with the court and stated that on behalf of his client he wished to file objections to the relief prayed in the application of the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Company. Thereafter Richard E. Zimmerman, attorney for Loyola Federal Savings & Loan Association filed a paper entitled objection to reclamation petition of the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Company. The court determined to treat this paper as an application for leave to intervene and set the matter for further hearing on September 1, 1968. At that time James M. Vaughan, attorney for the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Company, William R. Leckenby, Jr., Trustee, and Richard E. Zimmerman, attorney for Loyola Federal Savings & Loan Association, appeared.

Richard E. Zimmerman presented to the court a proposed representation of a certain contract attached hereto.

The court concluded that this representation should be approved and that the prefabricated masonite windows to come under paragraph 1 of the contract described in an installation order contract dated June 11,
